

Suggested Paragraph for inclusion in a syllabus

Young Library has embedded a librarian into this course. You should consult the librarian for help in accessing library resources and for assistance with research and the research process. Questions on course content, the syllabus, and assignments should be directed to the course instructor/professor.