

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses are organized in alphabetical order by the course prefix. The first two letters of the prefix indicate the department through which the course is offered. The last two letters describe specific programs. Most of the courses are offered each year.

ARTS AND SCIENCES COURSE OFFERINGS

NOTE: Some developmental courses in the Arts and Sciences listings may be awarded institutional credits. In these classes, credits do not apply toward graduation but do count toward enrollment status for such purposes as determining eligibility for housing and financial aid. Placement in and successful completion of these courses is required of students who do not demonstrate an adequate grasp of basic skills at the time of entrance to the University.

ART

ASAR 101 ART APPRECIATION (3 hours)

This course provides an introduction to the visual arts and the various ways humans have defined beauty. Presents issues involved in relating aesthetics with Christian faith, including the use of symbols and focuses on integrating artistic expression in the education of the whole person. (Offered Spring of Even Years.)

ASAR 212 SCHOOL ART (3 hours)

This course provides an introduction to the study of art and to art appreciation, with special emphasis on art activities appropriate to the developmental stages of children in elementary and church schools. (Prerequisite: EDF 251. Offered Every Semester)

SCIENCE: BIOLOGY

ASBS 109 PRINCIPLES OF BIOLOGY (3 hours)

A survey of biological science with an emphasis on basic concepts and principles necessary for understanding life and living things. Topics of study include cell biology, genetics, plant and animal diversity, ecology, and natural selection. Course involves laboratory exercises.

ASBS 110 HUMAN BIOLOGY (4 hours)

This course applies biological principles to practical human concerns enabling students to understand their bodies and their environment. Emphasis is placed on human anatomy, physiology, genetics, diseases, and the aging process. Concepts will be reinforced through laboratory exercises. (Offered Every Fall)

ASBS 111 ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY I (4 hours)

This course is a study of the structures, functions, and integrating processes of the human body. Topics of study include basic chemistry concepts, anatomical terminology, cell biology, histology, the musculoskeletal system, the integumentary system, the nervous system and digestion. An emphasis will be placed on the interaction among all systems in maintaining homeostasis. Concepts will be reinforced through laboratory experiences. (Offered Every Fall)

ASBS 112 ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY II (4 hours)

This course is a continuation of ASBS 111. Topics of study include the reproductive system, endocrinology, embryology, genetics, the cardiovascular system, immunity, respiration, the urinary system, and electrolyte and water balance. An emphasis will be placed on the interaction among all systems in maintaining homeostasis. Concepts will be reinforced through laboratory experiences. (Prerequisite: ASBS 111 or instructor's consent. Offered Every Spring)

ASBS 210 MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY (2 hours)

This course provides the basic knowledge of medical language that students need to communicate clearly and understand communication from other health care team members. Exercises are included that help students memorize word parts and their meanings so they can combine parts to form medical terms. New terms and abbreviations reflect advances in technology and changes in health care delivery systems, providing the student with the most up-to-date terminology. "Real-life" case studies, formatted as actual medical reports, encourage critical thinking and demonstrate how to apply information. Same as NUHE 202. (Offered on Demand)

ASBS 211 PRINCIPLES OF MICROBIOLOGY (3 hours)

A study of microorganisms with an emphasis placed on pathogenesis, principles of immunity and resistance to disease. Content of the course will include a study of microbial cell structure, physiology, environmental requirements, growth, modes of reproduction and genetics. Laboratory activities include microscopic identification of microorganisms and assigned case studies covering several major body systems. (Offered Every Fall)

ASBS 312 PATHOPHYSIOLOGY (3 hours)

This course is an introduction to the abnormal functioning of the human body in relation to disease and the aging process. The course is intended to help the student understand the underlying scientific basis for why certain conditions appear when systems of the human body are affected by disease or aging. The course will build on the foundational concepts of normal body function from anatomy and physiology. (Prerequisite: ASBS 111 and 112. Offered Every Spring)

COMMUNICATION

ASCO 201 FUNDAMENTALS OF SPEECH (3 hours)

This course, accompanied by a lab, equips students to prepare and present short informative and persuasive speeches. The selection and organization of material, methods of securing interest and attention, and elements of delivery are emphasized. (Prerequisite to all communications and preaching classes. Offered Every Semester)

ENGLISH

ASEN 100 INTENSIVE COMPOSITION (4 HOURS)

This course is designed to help students understand and develop their writing, reading, and thinking abilities, with emphasis on the writing process. Special emphasis on mastering the conventions of written, professional English, including spelling, punctuation, basic grammar, sentence structure, and paragraph organization. Students will also be introduced to library and Internet research methods. Successful completion of this course requires demonstrated proficiency on a nationally-normed test of English skills including a writing sample. (Offered every fall) (Prerequisite: Required of all students with a score of 17 or below on the English subtest of the ACT.)

ASEN 101 ENGLISH COMPOSITION I (3 hours)

This course is designed to help students understand and develop their writing, reading, and thinking abilities through the production and rhetorical examination of any variety of texts, with emphasis on the writing process, and to prepare students to develop analytical, interpretive, and synthesizing abilities. Students in this course will also be introduced to library and Internet research methods. (Prerequisite: English ACT score of 17 or above, or one semester of ASEN 100. Offered Every Fall)

ASEN 102 ENGLISH COMPOSITION II (3 hours)

English 102 builds on skills learned in English 101 by further leading students to analyze and write critically about any variety of texts, including literature, and to apply research skills toward the production of a research paper. (Prerequisite: a 2.0 in English 101. Offered Every Spring)

ASEN 103 COMPOSITION: AN ACCELERATED COURSE (3 hours)

Combines the content of ASEN 101 and ASEN 102 with an emphasis on composition, library research, a research paper, and reading skills through literature. In combination with a departmental exam the course satisfies the KCU six-hour composition requirement for a bachelor's degree or any course prerequisite which cites ASEN 102. (Prerequisites: English ACT component score of 27 or above or a score of 4 or 5 on the AP English exam and completion of a comprehensive departmental exam [equivalent to 3 credit hours to fulfill the requirement for ASEN 101. Offered Every Spring)

ASEN 203 MASTERPIECES OF WORLD LITERATURE (3 hours)

This course introduces masterpieces of literature from various cultural traditions around the world. Through close reading of selected celebrated texts, students will gain an appreciation of the aesthetics of different literary forms and the diverse cultural contexts in which they are produced. (Offered Spring of Even-Numbered Years)

ASEN 213 MASTERPIECES OF BRITISH LITERATURE (3 HOURS)

This course introduces masterpieces of literature written in English by writers from the British Isles. Through close reading of selected celebrated texts, students will broaden their reading experience while gaining depth and insight into specific texts which have influenced English-speaking peoples around the globe. (Offered Fall of Even-Numbered Years)

ASEN 223 MASTERPIECES OF AMERICAN LITERATURE (3 hours)

This course introduces masterpieces of literature written in English by writers from the United States. Through close reading of selected celebrated texts, students will gain a broader appreciation of the American literary heritage while developing depth and insight in their understanding of specific texts. (Offered Every Fall)

ASEN 252, 352, 452 DRAMA PRACTICUM (1 hour)

This course provides direct experience in the production and performance of plays. Students work with faculty in reading and interpreting dramatic texts in order to bring a play to the stage. Students must be selected for a significant role in the play (one requiring 90+ hours of work), either performance or production. May be repeated for credit with different plays, for a maximum of 3 credit hours. (Offered Every Spring)

- ASEN 302 CREATIVE WRITING (3 hours)
A course emphasizing the writing of short stories, with study and practical application of the major elements of fiction with attention to writing processes and projects appropriate to children in middle school through early high school. (Prerequisite: ASEN 102 or 103. Offered Spring of Even Years)
- ASEN 303 GRAMMAR OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE (3 hours)
A systematic and rigorous survey of the structure of contemporary English grammar. This course explores usage problems associated with contemporary grammar in both speech and writing. Some of the topics covered in the course will include the structure of clauses and phrases, word classes, linking clauses, punctuation, various usage problems (e.g. subject-verb agreement, pronoun agreement, auxiliary verbs, case, confusion of adjectives and adverbs), style (e.g. emphasis, clarity, consistency, cohesion, coherence and unity). (Offered Fall of Odd-Numbered Years)
- ASEN 304 LITERATURE AND THE ARTS IN THE WESTERN TRADITION (3 hours)
This course fosters an understanding of landmarks of the Western cultural heritage in literature and the arts, with related studies in the religion, language, and philosophy as appropriate. Same as ASHU 302. (Offered Spring of Odd-Numbered Years)
- ASEN 305 LITERATURE AND THE ARTS IN SELECTED WORLD CULTURES (3 hours)
This course fosters an understanding of landmarks of selected works from cultures outside the Western tradition in literature and the arts, with related studies in religion, language, and philosophy as appropriate. Same as ASHU 303. (Offered Fall of Odd-Numbered Years)
- ASEN 311, 411 SPECIAL TOPICS IN LITERATURE: AUTHOR STUDIES (3 hours)
Various courses may be offered under these numbers in the study of significant authors in literature, individually, or in groups. May be repeated for credit with different topics. (Prerequisite: ASEN 102 or 103. Offered Spring of Odd Years)
- ASEN 321, 421 SPECIAL TOPICS IN LITERATURE: GENRE/PERIOD STUDIES (3 hours)
Various courses may be offered under these numbers in the study of literary genres or literary periods. May be repeated for credit with different topics. (Prerequisite: ASEN 102 or 103. Offered Spring of Odd Years)
- ASEN 401 SHAKESPEARE (3 hours)
This on-line course focuses on Shakespeare's major plays, and the historical and social context in which they were first produced. Some attention to Shakespeare's minor poetry. (Prerequisite: ASEN 102 or 103)
- ASEN 405 HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE (3 hours)
This course will present both the inner and outer histories of the English language. Inner history comprises the actual changes in phonology, morphology, syntax, and semantics in the evolution of the English language; outer history comprises the cultural and technological events that contributed to inner history. Basic linguistic terminology will be introduced and then applied in the examination of the history of the English language. (Offer Spring of Odd-Numbered Years)
- ASEN 451 SEMINAR (1-3 hours)
An advanced study in a particular area of English. (Offered on Demand)

GEOGRAPHY

- ASGE 102 WORLD GEOGRAPHY (3 hours)
An on-line study of the geography of the world regions with emphasis on the world's landscapes as explained by natural and human processes. (Offered Every Spring)
- ASGE 302 PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH AMERICA (3 hours)
This course will survey the evolving geography of North America during the past five centuries, viewing the continent as a dynamic and growing geographic formation, a continually changing set of places and regions. It will consider the nature of the physical environment and its influence on the development of the nation, and will also examine changing social and cultural patterns. (Offered Every Fall, beginning 2007)

HISTORY

- ASHI 101 WORLD HISTORY I (3 hours)
A survey of world history from the beginning of civilization to 1650. It includes an introduction to the origins and early development of individual civilizations. Stresses interdependency and interrelations among cultures, and compares social, political, and religious movements. (Offered Every Fall)
- ASHI 102 WORLD HISTORY II (3 hours)
A continuation of ASHI 101 that surveys world history from 1650 to the present. Emphasis is placed on various nationalistic movements of the world, including the English, American, and French Revolutions; the rise of the new nations; scientific expansion; changes in religious sects; world conflicts; and status of the world at the present time. (Offered Every Spring)
- ASHI 111 HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES I (3 hours)
A survey course in United States history from the founding to 1877. (Offered Every Fall)

- ASHI 112 HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES II (3 hours)
A continuation of ASHI 111, from 1877 to the present. (Offered Every Spring)
- ASHI 200 INTRODUCTION TO ARCHAEOLOGY (3 hours)
An on-line course introducing students to archaeology with an emphasis on archaeological theory, field work methods, artifact processing, and data interpretation. The course is designed to introduce students to the theoretical concepts of archaeology, participation in field work, and the critical reading of archaeological reports with a focus on the archaeology of the Middle East. (Same as ASAN 200)
- ASHI 201 COLONIAL HISTORY (3 hours)
A study of the origins and development of the English colonies and their relations with England and other European states. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. (Offered Fall of Even-Numbered Years)
- ASHI 202 THE AMERICAN FRONTIER (3 hours)
A study of the westward expansion of the United States from 1750 to the close of the frontier in 1890. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Even Years)
- ASHI 300 HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY (3 hours)
A study of the historical progression of the church from its inception to the present. Particular attention will be given to the early development of the church and the development of doctrines as well as the Protestant Reformation. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Even-Numbered Years)
- ASHI 311 THE AGE OF JACKSON (3 hours)
Analysis of national political and social movements in the development of the United States in the years before the Civil War. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Even Years)
- ASHI 320 HISTORY OF THE MIDDLE EAST (3 hours)
A study of the history of the Middle East from the rise of Islam to modern times. This course includes not only political history, but also an examination of Islam, and the social and economic changes in this region. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Odd Years)
- ASHI 321 TWENTIETH CENTURY HISTORY (3 hours)
A history of the United States from 1900 through 2000. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Odd-Numbered Years)
- ASHI 331 MEDIEVAL HISTORY (3 hours)
A study of European civilization from the decline of the Roman Empire to the beginning of the Renaissance. The course includes not only political, but also religious, social, and economic changes. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Even Years)
- ASHI 340 THE FRENCH REVOLUTION & THE AGE OF NAPOLEON (3 hours)
A study of events in Europe from 1789 until the close of the Congress of Vienna in 1815. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Odd Years)
- ASHI 350 AREA STUDIES: HISTORY (3 hours)
Historical study of a particular people, region, or nation. Special attention will be given to political and economic issues. (Offered on Demand)
- ASHI 355 ANCIENT ROME
An examination of the early peoples of Italy, Etruscans, constitutional development of the Republic, Growth of the Empire, civil wars, history of principle to Constantine. Stresses archaeological sources, Latin literature, Roman life and institutions, and Roman contributions to Western civilization. (Same as BIHI 355. Prerequisite: ASHI 1__ or permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Even Years, Beginning 2008)
- ASHI 356 ANCIENT EGYPT AND MESOPOTAMIA (3 hours)
An examination of the early peoples of the Mediterranean region and problems of ancient chronology: Civilizations of the Sumerians, Babylonians, Egyptians, Assyrians, biblical Hebrews, and Persians. Stresses archaeological literary sources, comparative social and religious concepts, acculturation, and contributions to Western civilization. (Same as BIHI 356. Prerequisite: ASHI 1__ or permission of the instructor. Offered On Demand)
- ASHI 360 AREA STUDIES: HISTORY (3 hours)
An overview of the social and cultural history of a particular people, region, or nation. Special attention will be given to religious and social history. (Offered on Demand)
- ASHI 401 KENTUCKY HISTORY (3 hours)
This course examines the development of Kentucky from its earliest days. It will also study the complexity of that development which involved the interplay of geographic, cultural, political, economic, social and religious factors and values. Historical thinking and understanding will be stressed. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1__ or permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Odd-Numbered Years)

- ASHI 411 HISTORY OF THE RESTORATION MOVEMENT (3 hours)
An overview of the history of the church in America with special emphasis on the history of Stone-Campbell movements that began in the early nineteenth century in the United States. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 or the permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Odd-Numbered Years)
- ASHI 412 HISTORY AND ARCHAEOLOGY OF THE ANCIENT NEAR EAST (3 hours)
Examines the political, social, and religious history of the Ancient Near East. Special emphasis on the contribution of archaeology to the study of the history of this region and its relation to ancient documents including the Old Testament. (Same as BIHI 421. Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 and Junior or senior standing or the permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Odd Years)
- ASHI 422 HISTORY AND ARCHAEOLOGY OF THE GRECO-ROMAN WORLD (3 hours)
Examines the political, social, and religious history of the Greco-Roman World. Special emphasis placed on the contribution of archaeology to the study of the history of this region and its relation to ancient documents including the New Testament. (Same as BIHI 422. Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 and Junior or Senior standing or the permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Even Years)
- ASHI 430 HISTORY SEMINAR (1-3 hours)
A seminar focusing on some in-depth historical study. Topic to be announced. (Prerequisites: ASHI 1_1 and ASHI 1_2 and Junior or senior standing or the permission of the instructor. Offered On Demand)
- ASHI 431, 432, 433 GUIDED HISTORICAL FIELD EXPERIENCE (1-3 hours)
A guided field experience in some aspect of historical study or archeology, in the United States or abroad. Includes preparation for the experience, the actual experience in the field, and a post fieldwork assessment. Participation in archaeological fieldwork, an organized study tour, involvement in historical preservation projects, or work in museums or archives may be included. (Prerequisites: ASHI 101 and 102 or ASHI 111 and 112; permission of the instructor; sophomore standing or above; 2.5 GPA or above; and permission of the Office of Student Life. Offered On Demand)
- ASHI 441, 442, 443 INDEPENDENT STUDY (1 to 3 hours)
Includes readings, research, and discussions with an emphasis on research and writing in the field of history. May involve investigation of problems of historical and contemporary significance. (Pre-requisite: Instructor consent. Offered On Demand)
- ASHI 444 SENIOR SEMINAR (3 hours)
Involves research with oral and written presentations designed to assess students' achievement. (Prerequisites: 18 hours completed in History major or permission of the instructor. Offered Every Spring)
- ASHI 451 SEMINAR: CIVIL WAR (3 hours)
A seminar focusing on an in-depth study of a topic selected and researched on the Civil War, complemented by a field trip to visit selected sites of importance to the topic. (Prerequisite: ASHI 111. Offered Spring of Even-Numbered Years)

HUMANITIES

- ASHU 101 HUMANITIES PERFORMANCE SERIES (0 credit hours)
A non-credit course providing the opportunity to participate in a variety of out-of-class cultural/intellectual activities (e.g. plays, concerts, art exhibits, films, etc.). Designed primarily for humanities students and as a co-requisite for selected A&S courses, but other interested students may also enroll. Course fee pays for transportation and ticket expenses.
- ASHU 301 FILM AND AMERICAN CULTURE (3 hours)
American films as both works of art and social documents. Relationship between the medium of film and American culture in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. Emphasis on developing a critical understanding of film informed by faith. (Prerequisite: ASEN 2__ (any sophomore literature) or ASHU 302 or ASHU 303. Offered Fall of Even-Numbered Years)
- ASHU 302 ARTS AND HUMANITIES IN THE WESTERN TRADITION (3 hours)
Fosters an appreciation of the landmarks of the Western cultural heritage in religion, philosophy, language and literature, and the arts. Meets the literature requirement in the Arts and Sciences core for some degree programs. (Prerequisites: ASEN 102 or ASEN 103. Offered Spring of Odd Years)
- ASHU 303 ARTS AND HUMANITIES IN SELECTED WORLD CULTURES (3 hours)
Fosters an appreciation of selected landmark works from cultures outside the Western tradition, drawing from religion, philosophy, language and literature, and the arts. Meets the literature requirement in the Arts and Sciences core for some degree programs. (Prerequisites: ASEN 102 or ASEN 103. Offered Spring of Even Years)
- ASHU 401 INTERNSHIP (3 hours)
Designed to provide students with 240 hours of direct experience in a career field related to the humanities. (Prerequisites: ASHU 201 and 303. Offered on Demand)

LANGUAGE

- ASLA 101 BEGINNING SPANISH I (3 hours)
A beginning study of grammar with practice in hearing, speaking, reading, and writing Spanish. (Offered Every Fall)
- ASLA 102 BEGINNING SPANISH II (3 hours)
A continuation of ASLA 101. A course in reading, writing, and conversation, with emphasis on grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. (Prerequisite: C (2.0) or higher in ASLA 101 or permission of the instructor. Offered Every Spring)
- ASLA 130 AREA STUDIES: LANGUAGE (3 hours)
The essentials of grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, and usage of a non-English language specific to an off-campus learning experience. (Offered on Demand)
- ASLA 140 AREA STUDIES: LANGUAGE (3 hours)
A continuation of ASLA 130. (Offered on Demand)
- ASLA 201 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH I (3 hours)
Reading of Spanish texts, review of essentials of Spanish grammar, and conversational practice. (Prerequisite: C (2.0) or higher in ASLA 102 or permission of the instructor. Offered Every Fall)
- ASLA 202 INTERMEDIATE SPANISH II (3 hours)
A continuation of ASLA 201. Reading of challenging Spanish texts; review of advanced concepts of Spanish grammar; continued conversational practice. (Prerequisite: C (2.0) or higher in ASLA 201 or permission of the instructor. Offered Every Spring)

MATHEMATICS

- ASMA 090 FUNDAMENTALS OF MATHEMATICS (3 institutional credit hours)
A study of numerical function and operations. Basic algebraic operations and geometric functions are discussed. A proficiency exam is required at the end of the course. (Required of all students with a 14 or below on the Math Subtest of the ACT. Offered Every Fall)
- ASMA 099 MATHEMATICS LAB (1 institutional credit hour)
A laboratory experience used to reinforce mathematics skills as discussed in ASMA 220. Meets two hours per week. (Co-requisite: ASMA 220 for all students with a 16 or below on the Math Subtest of the ACT)
- ASMA 211 MATH FOR ELEMENTARY TEACHERS I (3 hours)
Designed for early elementary and middle grade teacher education majors to provide a working knowledge of geometric and arithmetic sequences, operations with whole numbers, rational numbers, real numbers, the concept of equations, number theory, and problem solving. (Prerequisite: 17 or above on the math sub-test of the ACT or C (2.0) in ASMA 090. Offered Every Fall)
- ASMA 212 MATH FOR ELEMENTARY TEACHERS II (3 hours)
A continuation of ASMA 211. Includes an introduction to probability and statistics, geometry, and problem solving. (Prerequisite: ASMA 211 or permission of the instructor. Offered Every Spring)
- ASMA 213 THE MATHEMATICS OF NURSING (3 hours)
Designed for nursing majors ONLY in order to provide a working knowledge of number systems, fractions, decimals, and percentages as well as a study of ratio and proportion. Medical systems of measurement will also be studied. (Offered Every Fall)
- ASMA 220 FUNDAMENTALS OF ALGEBRA (3 hours)
Designed to meet the prerequisite for Statistics (BSPS 222, BUAD 292, and ASMA 302). Includes the basic concepts of arithmetic, linear equations, inequalities, polynomials, factoring, radicals, and quadratic equations. (NOT ACCEPTABLE as credit for teacher education majors choosing a math concentration in the middle grades 5-8). (Prerequisite: 17 or above on the Math Subtest of the ACT or C (2.0) in ASMA 090. Students with scores of 16 or below must also enroll in ASMA 099 as a co-requisite. Offered Every Semester)
- ASMA 221 COLLEGE ALGEBRA (3 hours)
Provides a study of the basic concepts of algebra needed for further work in college mathematics. Includes operations with polynomials, simplifying rational expressions, linear and quadratic equations, word problems, functions, graphing, systems of equations, exponents, radical expressions, and logarithms. (Prerequisite: two years high school algebra. Offered Every Spring)
- ASMA 222 TRIGONOMETRY (3 hours)
Intended for middle-grade math education majors. Includes the application and graphing of various trigonometric functions, problem solving using triangles, exponents, identities, inverse trigonometric functions, and complex numbers. The use of polar coordinates, polar graphs, and the polar form of complex numbers, and DeMoivre's Theorem to solve given problems are also included. (Prerequisite: ASMA 221 or permission of the instructor. Offered Spring of Odd Years)

ASMA 241 GEOMETRY (3 hours)
Intended for middle-grade math teacher education majors. Involves the use of inductive and deductive reasoning along with the study of the properties of triangles, rectangles, parallel and perpendicular lines, and symmetry through problem solving. Includes the development of geometric proofs and the use of the axioms and theorems of Euclidean geometry. (Prerequisite: ASMA 221 or permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Even Years)

ASMA 302 INTRODUCTION TO STATISTICS (3 hours)
An introduction to quantitative methods in social science research. Topics include summation notation, probability, descriptive statistics, and parametric and non-parametric inferential statistics. (Prerequisite: ASMA 220 or 221, or instructor consent)

ASMA 321 CALCULUS I (4 hours)
Intended for middle-grade math teacher education majors. Functions, limits and continuity are taught along with differentiation, integration, and their applications. (Prerequisite: ASMA 222 or permission of the instructor. Offered Fall of Odd Years)

ASMA 322 CALCULUS II (4 hours)
A continuation of ASMA 321, this course is also intended for middle-grade math teacher education majors. Logarithmic and exponential functions, sequences, infinite series, and differentiation and integration of two or more variables are discussed. (Prerequisite: ASMA 321. Offered Spring of Even Years)

PHILOSOPHY

ASPH 301 INTRODUCTION TO PHILOSOPHY (3 hours)
Study of basic issues and intellectual activities considered by philosophers through the ages. Particular attention is given to the Christian viewpoint on various schools of thought. (Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing. Offered Spring of Even-Numbered Years)

ASPH 401 MASTERPIECES OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT (3 hours)
This course is a delineation of the Christian worldview through reading in classic Christian literature from both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres. (Same as BITH 401. Prerequisite: BITH 105. Offered Spring of Odd-Numbered Years)

POLITICAL SCIENCE

ASPO 101 AMERICAN GOVERNMENT (3 hours)
A survey of government and the political process, with emphasis on the Constitution, the President, Congress, and the judicial system. (Offered Spring of Odd-Numbered Years)

ASPO 301 AMERICAN STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT (3 hours)
This course examines the evolution and development of state and local governments since the founding of the United States. The course will focus on the basic institutions and processes as well as a broad spectrum of current policy issues that affect governing on both states and localities. (Offered Spring of Even-Numbered years)

SCIENCE: PHYSICAL

ASPS 102 INTRODUCTION TO EARTH SCIENCE (3 hours)
Emphasizes concepts and theories necessary for understanding the physical and dynamic processes of Earth. Includes classic physical geology meteorology, oceanography, ground water, soil formation, and Biomes. (Offered Every Spring)

ASPS 104 INTRODUCTION TO CHEMISTRY (3 hours)
This course is an introduction to basic principles of matter, atomic theory, bonding theories, acids and bases and the pH scale. The course includes discussion of the chemistry of carbon, organic molecules and their functional groups. The student will also be introduced to OSHA standards and requirements for the safe operation of a lab and disposal of waste products. Hands-on activities are included to reinforce major concepts. (Offered Every Spring)

ASPS 106 INTRODUCTION TO PHYSICAL SCIENCE (3 hours)
This course is an interdisciplinary study of chemistry, physics, astronomy, and earth science, with an emphasis on concepts, theories, and processes necessary for understanding the physical environment. Content includes basic concepts of matter, heat, light, mechanics, sound, electricity, magnetism, geology, meteorology, and the solar system. (Prerequisite: 1 years high school algebra or ASMA 220 or instructor consent. Offered Every Semester)

ASPS 106L PHYSICAL SCIENCE LAB FOR TEACHERS (1 hour)
Laboratory exercises to reinforce basic concepts of physical science through hands on activities. Designed for teacher education majors. (Offered on Demand)

- ASPS 107 SCIENCE AND SOCIETY (3 hour)
Chemistry plays a vital role in everything we do. In addition to the basic concepts and principles of chemistry, this course will cover topics such as energy resources, water and air pollution, biochemistry nutrition, personal care products, and medicine. The course is designed to provide a student the body of knowledge which can be used to demystify scientific concepts and to evaluate societal issues that are consequences of man's actions and technology. (Offered Every Semester)
- ASPS 108 INTRODUCTION TO ASTRONOMY (3 hours)
This course provides an introduction to the field of astronomy, which is essentially the study of everything in the universe outside the earth's atmosphere. After studying some important physical principles, students will begin their exploration of the universe with a look at Earth's solar system and then move out to increasingly large distances, studying stars, galaxies, and finally the entire universe as a whole. Mandatory laboratory exercise will be conducted weekly, at night, when weather permits. (Offered Every Spring)
- ASPS 111 GENERAL CHEMISTRY (4 hours)
This course is a study of the basic principles of matter, including stoichiometry, atomic theory, bonding theories, gas laws, and acid/base theory. Laboratory experiments will emphasize lecture concepts and be an integral part of the course. 3 hours lecture, 3 hours lab. (Prerequisite: 1 year high school algebra or ASMA 220, or instructor permission. Offered Fall of Even-Numbered Years)
- ASPS 112 GENERAL CHEMISTRY II (4 hours)
This is a continuation of ASPS 111. Advanced topics covered in this course include: equilibria, including acids and bases, complexes, and sparingly soluble compounds, thermodynamics, kinetics, electrochemistry, and solution theory. Descriptive inorganic chemistry is also covered. Laboratory experiments will emphasize lecture concepts and be an integral part of the course. 3 hours lecture, 3 hours lab. (Prerequisite: ASPS 111. Offered On Demand)
- ASPS 301 GENERAL PHYSICS I (4 hours)
This course is an in-depth study of the principles of mechanics including the laws of motion, Newton's laws, work, force, and the behavior of solids and fluids relative to stress and strain. Laboratory exercises will reinforce the concepts. Three hours of weekly lecture and 2 hours of weekly lab. (Offered Fall Of Odd-Numbered Years)

BIBLICAL STUDIES COURSE OFFERINGS

BIBLICAL HISTORY AND ARCHAEOLOGY

- BIHI 421 OLD TESTAMENT ARCHAEOLOGY (3 hours)
An examination of the political, social, and religious history of the Ancient Near East. Special emphasis on the contribution of archaeology to the study of the history of this region and its relation to ancient documents including the Old Testament. (Same as ASHI 412. Prerequisites: ASHI 1__)
- BIHI 422 NEW TESTAMENT ARCHAEOLOGY (3 hours)
An examination of the political, social, and religious history of the Greco-Roman World. Special emphasis placed on the contribution of archaeology to the study of the history of this region and its relation to ancient documents including the New Testament. (Same as ASHI 422. Off-Campus Semester and Summer Programs Offered by Council for Christian Colleges & Universities

The Council for Christian Colleges & Universities, an association of 100 campuses in the U.S. and Canada, offers the following semester and summer programs to students of its member institutions. The programs offer a unique opportunity for students to make the world their classroom, going beyond the confines of the traditional classroom. These interdisciplinary learning opportunities are available to upper class students. For further information, contact either the Academic Office or the CCCU.

Semester Programs

- ASP AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM
Founded in 1976, the American Studies Program has served hundreds of students from member institutions as a "Washington, D.C. campus." ASP uses Washington as a stimulating educational laboratory where collegians gain hands-on experience with an internship in their chosen field. Internships are tailored to fit the student's talents and aspirations and are available in a wide range of fields. They also explore pressing national and international issues in public policy seminars, which are issue-oriented, interdisciplinary and led by ASP faculty and Washington professionals. ASP bridges classroom and marketplace, combining biblical reflection, policy analysis and real-world experience. Students are exposed to on-the-job learning that helps them build for their future and gain perspective on the calling of God for their lives. They are challenged in a rigorous course of study to discover for themselves the meaning of Christ's Lordship in putting their beliefs into practice. The aim of the program is to help Council schools prepare their students to live faithfully in contemporary society as followers of Christ. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.
- CMP CONTEMPORARY MUSIC PROGRAM
The Contemporary Music Program provides students the opportunity to live and work in community while seeking to understand how God will have them integrate music, faith and business. Both interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary in nature, the CMP offers two tracks: the Artist Track and the Executive Track. The Artist track is tailored to students considering careers as vocalists, musicians, songwriters, recording artists, performers, producers and recording engineers. The Executive Track is designed for business, arts management, marketing, communications and other majors interested in possible careers as artist managers, agents, record company executives, music publishers, concert promoters and entertainment industry entrepreneurs. Both Artist and Executive track students receive instruction, experience and a uniquely Christian perspective on creativity and the marketplace, while working together to create and market a recording of original music. Both tracks include course work, labs, directed study and a practicum. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.
- CSP CHINA STUDIES PROGRAM
The China Studies Program enables students to engage this large and intriguing country from the inside. While living in and experiencing Chinese civilization firsthand, students participate in seminar courses on the historical, cultural, religious, geographical and economic realities of this strategic and populous nation. In addition to the study of standard Chinese, students are given opportunities such as assisting Chinese students learning English or working in an orphanage, allowing for one-on-one interaction. The program introduces students to the diversity of China, including Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Xi'an and Xiamen. This interdisciplinary, cross-cultural program enables students to deal with this increasingly important part of the world in an informed, Christ-centered way. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.
- HP-O HONOURS PROGRAMME-CMRS, OXFORD
Honors and other highly qualified students have the exciting opportunity to study in England through this interdisciplinary semester in Oxford. The rigorous academic program, aimed at increasing critical thinking skills and scholarship from an integrated Christian perspective, allows participants to choose from a wide variety of tutorial study programs in numerous disciplines, including the arts, religion, history, literature and philosophy. In addition to two tutorials, students participate in a seminar and an integrative course through which they produce a scholarly project or term paper. Field trips provide opportunities for experiential learning in England's rich historical setting. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.
- LAFSC LOS ANGELES FILM STUDIES CENTER
The Los Angeles Film Studies Center is designed to train students of Council institutions to serve in various aspects of the film industry with both professional skill and Christian integrity. Students live, learn and work in the LA area near major studios. The curriculum consists of two required seminars focusing on the role of film in culture and the relationship of faith to work in this very influential industry. In addition, students choose two elective courses from a variety of offerings in film studies. Internships in various segments of the film industry provide students with hands-on experience. The combination of the internship and seminars allow students to explore the film industry within a Christian context and from a liberal arts perspective. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.
- LASP LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM
Students of CCCU colleges have the opportunity to live and learn in Latin America through the Latin American Studies Program, based in San Jose, Costa Rica. The program introduces students to as wide a range of experiences through the study of the language, literature, culture, politics, history, economics, ecology and religion of the region. Living with a Costa Rican family, students experience and become apart of the day-to-day lives of typical Latin Americans. Students also take part in a service opportunity and travel for three weeks to nearby Central American nations. Students participate in one of four concentrations: Latin American Studies (offered both fall and spring terms); Advanced Language and Literature (limited to Spanish majors and offered both fall and spring terms); International Business and Management (offered only in fall terms); and Tropical Sciences (offered only during spring terms). Students in all concentrations earn 16 semester credits.

MESP MIDDLE EAST STUDIES PROGRAM

This program, based in Cairo, Egypt, allows Council students to explore and interact with the complex and strategic world of the modern Middle East. The interdisciplinary seminars give students the opportunity to explore the diverse religious, social, cultural and political traditions of Middle Eastern people. In addition to seminars, students study the Arabic language and work as volunteers with various organizations in Cairo. Through travel to Israel, Palestine, Jordan, Syria and Turkey, students are exposed to the diversity and dynamism of the region. MESP encourages and equips students to relate to the Muslim world in an informed, constructive and Christ-centered manner at a time of tension and change. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

RSP RUSSIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

RSP students are exposed to the depth and diversity of the culture during a semester spent in Russia's three largest cities: Moscow, St. Petersburg and Nizhni Novgorod. In addition to three seminar courses entitled History and Sociology of Religion in Russia; Russian Peoples, Cultures and Literature; and Russian in Transition, students receive instruction in the Russian language, choosing either 4 or 6 semester hours of language coursework. For those choosing 4 hours of Russian, a seminar course, International Relations and Business in Russia, is available. RSP strives to give students as wide an experience as possible in this complex nation, beginning with time in Moscow, the heart of both medieval and modern Russia. Students then spend 12 weeks in Nizhni Novgorod, a strategic city on the Volga River. After six weeks of language instruction, students live with a Russian family for the remainder of their stay in this city. Students also participate in a service opportunity in Nizhni Novgorod. The program concludes with time in the complex and intriguing city of St. Petersburg, the Russian "window to the West." Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Summer Programs

CMRS SUMMER PROGRAMME – CMRS, OXFORD

This program allows students to spend a summer term studying at the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies (CMRS) in Oxford, England. The program includes multi-disciplinary study of the Renaissance and Reformation through examination of philosophy, art, literature, science, music, politics and religion of early modern Europe in a choice of lectures, seminars and field trips. Students earn 6-9 semester credits, which are administered directly to member institutions by CMRS. Worth 6-9 hours of credits.

SIJ SUMMER INSTITUTE OF JOURNALISM

Council campuses are invited to choose two student journalists to apply for this four-week, all-expense-paid experience in Washington, D.C. Fifteen students are selected to participate in the Institute, which lasts from mid-May to mid-June. The Institute blends classroom experience with hands-on work and provides excellent opportunity to learn through lectures and panels with leading journalists who share a strong Christian Commitment. Students also participate in seminars taught by communications professors from Council member institutions, take part in field trips and complete workshop projects for hometown newspapers. SIJ provides valuable insight and training in gathering and writing news, editing copy and designing layout. The Institute develops students as Christian journalists – exhibiting both professionalism and legal/ethical integrity. Students earn 4 semester hours of credit.
