Illegal Downloading of Materials

Kentucky Christian University

100 Academic Parkway, Grayson, KY 41143 • www.kcu.edu
Student Services Office • 606-474-3288

The Federal Government has passed laws to prohibit the illegal downloading of materials over the internet. KCU has been charged with informing all students of the law and its penalties. Please read this and sign at the bottom that you have been informed and that you will follow this law.

You should understand that if you are guilty of copyright infringement through the downloading of copyrighted materials you will be subject to the penalties set forth in the guidelines of the U.S. Government.

Following is a Summary of Civil and Criminal Penalties for Violation of Federal Copyright Laws:

Copyright infringement is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one of more of the exclusive right granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act (Title 17 of the United State Code). These rights include the right to reproduce or distribute a copyrighted work. In the file sharing context, downloading or uploading substantial parts of a copyrighted work without the authority constitutes an infringement.

Penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or "statutory" damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For "willful" infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys' fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505.

Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense.

The KCU Lifestyle Statement and Conduct Guidelines

Form
5 of 5

Kentucky Christian University

100 Academic Parkway, Grayson, KY 41143 • www.kcu.edu
Student Services Office • 606-474-3288

LIFESTYLE EXPECTATIONS

Kentucky Christian University (KCU) is a Christ-centered, educational community. Communities function best when their members understand and abide by established standards of lifestyle and conduct, followed not by force of others, but out of each individual's willingness to take personal responsibility for him or herself, as well as for the well-being of the community. (1 Corinthians 10:23-33). Members of the KCU community accept the Bible as the inspired word of God and the final authority in all matters of faith and life.

As a University we seek to keep Christ at the center of all our interactions, which will show in the life of our campus employees and students. Personal conduct should follow Biblical principles in speech, attitudes, and behavior (Colossians 3:12-17).

KCU has the responsibility of maintaining an environment conducive to learning and Christ-centered community living. KCU, therefore, reserves the right to discipline any student whose conduct is contrary to its purpose and standards.

CONDUCT GUIDELINES

Specific disciplinary consequences for the following behaviors are explained in the KCU Student Handbook. As members of the KCU community, students are expected to take personal responsibility for the following areas:

Integrity

Honesty and respect for all members of the KCU community is required. This includes abstaining from any form of stealing, cheating, slander, or obscene language.

Sobriety

Under no circumstances is the use, possession, or distribution of illegal drugs permitted. Alcohol is not permitted on campus, in campus-owned housing, or any university-related activity.

Sexual Purity

Any form of sexual immorality is prohibited – including but not limited to, premarital sex, adultery, homosexual acts, and the use of pornography.

Tobacco-Free Environment

Vaping, as well as the use of tobacco products in any form, is not allowed on campus, in campus-owned housing, or at any university-related activity.

Personal Safety

Assaulting, harassing, or endangering (in any manner) the health and safety of any person is prohibited.

Compliance with local, state, and federal laws, as well as the regulations in the Kentucky Christian University Student Handbook is expected of every student.

I understand the above expectations and guidelines and agree to abide to them. I further understand my signing this document is required for enrollment at Kentucky Christian University.
