Dr. Terry Allcorn Bio

Dr. Terry Allcorn was inaugurated as Kentucky Christian University's sixth president on December 3, 2019. He served as a Dean of Business at Valencia College's West Campus in Orlando, Florida, as Executive Vice President for Florida Christian College, Kissimmee, Florida and Chair of General Education at St. Louis Christian College, Florissant, MO.

Previous ministry positions include Cross-Cultural Ministry Experience in both Cleveland, Ohio and Aguadilla, Puerto Rico. Dr. Allcorn loves the local church and has served as a minister, elder, deacon and church planter.

Dr. Allcorn and his wife, Jacqueline (Studebaker) are both 1985 graduates of KCU. They have four adult children, Nathan (Maurine) Allcorn, Laurah (Taylor) Demar, Aaron (Haley) Allcorn and Josiah Allcorn. They are very proud of their grandchildren, Audie, Hazel and Aria. In addition, Josiah & Maurine are both graduates of KCU.
